The Wagga Women's Health Centre (known as the Centre) is a non-government organisation and was established in 1978. The Centre provides a variety of support services for women from a feminist basis within a trauma informed framework.

Women are supported and encouraged to make informed choices about their own lives and wellbeing that are right for them.

Who is this for?

The Centre is for any woman looking for support regardless of age, nationality or cultural background, sexuality, visa or financial status. Referral is by self-referral.

What does it cost?

All of the services and resources provided by the staff at the Centre are free.

What's on offer?

- Crisis Support (this is not counselling)
- Trauma Specialist Counselling for women who have experienced trauma including adult survivors of child sexual assault, sexual assault and domestic violence (DV)
- Healthy Lifestyle support
- Advocacy and referral
- All options pregnancy counselling
- Therapeutic & Health Education groups
- Economic Wellbeing support
- Complementary therapies
- Library & computer access
- Safe, women's only space

What about appointments?

Appointments are required for Counselling, Healthy Lifestyle support and Economic Wellbeing support. Crisis support appointments are available on a daily basis. Drop in is welcome.
